Hrístus * fáctus est pro no-bis obé-

The image shows a musical score on a four-line staff. The notation is a form of musical shorthand, possibly a simplified version of Gregorian chant notation. It consists of black rectangular notes with stems, some of which are decorated with white horizontal lines. The notes are placed on the lines and spaces of the staff. There are vertical bar lines indicating measures. The first measure contains several notes, including a pair of beamed notes. The second measure also contains several notes. The third measure is shorter and contains fewer notes. The fourth measure is the longest and contains a series of notes, including a pair of beamed notes. The fifth measure is the shortest and contains a single note. The sixth measure contains a pair of beamed notes. The seventh measure contains a pair of beamed notes.
